

eXtreme Copper

FAP

The NE 300 FAP provides low-cost, high-speed remote LAN connectivity over existing copper pair phone lines. Typical applications include the extension of LAN connectivity and services throughout a college campus or industrial park or a Multi Tenant Unit (MTU) such as a corporate office, hospital, dormitory, apartment building or hotel complex as depicted in the diagram below.

Product Highlights

- Reduces the Cost of Adding New Users to any 10/100 Network
- Support VDSL, Ethernet and POTS in a single low cost enclosure
- Support VDSL operation to 4,000 feet
- Fully Configurable VDSL rates up to 27MB asymmetrical operation.
- Telco-Style, Hardened, Wall Mount Packaging
- SNMP Manageable